

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl 12 years old.

Please give recipes for layer cake and biscuits, butterscotch, molasses candy, fudge and peanut clusters.

A READER.

Lemon Jelly Layer Cake—One and one-half cups of sugar and half cup of butter beaten to a cream; half cup of milk, two and one-half cups of flour, two teaspoonsful of cream of tartar, one teaspoonful of soda, three eggs well beaten. Bake in layers.

To make the lemon jelly: One cup of sugar, one egg, grate the yellow rind and use with the juice of one lemon; one tablespoonful of water, one tablespoonful of flour. Place in double boiler and let it thicken. When cool spread between the layers.

Baking Powder Biscuit—Two heaping teaspoonsful baking powder, two tablespoonsful lard, one-half teaspoonful salt; and sweet milk to make a soft dough. Bake in layers.

Butter Scotch—One cup New Orleans molasses, one cup butter, two cups powdered sugar, pinch of soda; boil all until it hardens when a bit is dropped in cold water. Pour in thin sheets to cool.

Molasses Candy—One cup white sugar, one teaspoonful butter, one tablespoonful vinegar, one small teaspoonful soda, two cups New Orleans molasses. Boil fast 20 minutes, stirring all the time. Cool in shallow pans and when cool enough pull fast until a bright yellow.

Fudge—Two cups white sugar, two cups light brown sugar, two cups sweet milk, one-quarter teaspoonful cream of tartar. Mix and boil until it grains nicely, then add butter size of an egg. Take from fire, add vanilla flavor, stir as long as you can before putting in tins. Add nuts if you like.

Peanut Clusters—Have your roasted peanuts shelled and ready. Make a syrup of one cup molasses to half cup of sugar. Just before it forms a soft ball in cold water, put in one-quarter teaspoonful baking soda. Take off the stove and pour over peanuts. Let mixture cool, but before it gets hard shape your peanut clusters.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 17.

(1) What do you think of the tango? My folks do not want me to dance it. I like to dance it and I don't see anything wrong when it is danced right.

(2) Is it proper to ask a boy friend to call or should he ask? How should you ask him?

(3) It is proper to meet a fellow uptown?

(4) Am I too young to get married? Is it all right to elope if the fellow wants you to?

(5) Am I too young to go to hall dances?

DOLLIE AND POLLIE.

(1) I do not really like the tango, my dear, though it is all right if properly danced. It would be a splendid exercise if the boys and girls did not think it gave them a good opportunity to do a lot of hugging, and for the girls to show more of their legs than is necessary.

(2) You might say you would be pleased to have him visit at your home some time and meet your people.

(3) No. If a man respects you, he will come to your house.

(4) You are too young to marry now, and no true manly man will ask a young girl to elope with him. He will get properly engaged to her with her parents' knowledge and marry respectably, as every decent man does.

(5) By hall dances I presume you mean public dances. I do not approve of them for girls of any age, unless one of her parents or a responsible person is with her.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Would it be proper to go to dances if my sister goes with me?

It depends upon how old and sensible your sister is.

and depth. "Die Forelle," "Was ist Sylvia" and "Erlkönig" all by Schubert followed and were very well given, the singer again responding to persistent applause with a Scotch ballad "Mary." Six lyrics from Sappho followed and then he gave "Gray Days," Johnson; "You," Parker; "Banjo Song," Homer and "Morning," Banjo. These, which were especially well rendered. Following this group another extra number was demanded.

Mr. Clarke gave a spoken song "For the Peace of My Itching Ears" by Paul Dunbar and pleased so much that he gave another by the same author "Little Brown Baby With Sparkling Eyes," which was also a real treat. He closed his program by singing three delightful Irish ballads "Little Mary Cassidy," "Ould Plaid Shawl" and "Irish Names," which are gems of musical expression.

Miss Edith Johnson of this city was at the piano as accompanist to Mr. Clarke and again demonstrated her ability as such. Her work is always in perfect sympathy with the singer and is a splendid setting for the artist.

TANGO TEA FOR BRIDES.

The Misses Claire Schlegel and Elizabeth Perry of Davenport entertained at a tango tea Saturday afternoon from 5 to 7 at the Davenport Outing club as a social courtesy for a trio of spring brides and grooms-to-be. In Miss Mildred McLaughlin and Oscar F. Greiner of Minneapolis; Miss Otis Stibolt and Leon Haas, and Miss Helen Watts and H. B. Payne. Miss McLaughlin will be a bride of April 22, and Miss Stibolt has chosen May Day for her wedding; Miss Watts has not as yet announced her wedding date, but it will be some time about the middle of May. The guests at the tea numbered between 75 and 100 tri-city young people. The hostesses with their guests of honor received in the wicker parlor just off the ball room.

Miss Schlegel was in white satin with blue chiffon overdress in tulle style. Miss Perry wore blue satin and lace. Miss McLaughlin was in blue charmeuse with white lace and her corsage bouquet was of violets and lilies of the valley. Miss Stibolt wore a gown of white satin trimmed in pink rose buds and her flowers were pink roses and violets. Miss Watts was in pale green messaline and cream lace bodice, and she wore a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Carl Schlegel, and Mrs. Frank Perry, the mothers of the young hostesses; the Misses Laura Schlegel and Laura McLaughlin, Mrs. George Bawden, Mrs. Hedwig Lischer, Mrs. Walter Blair, Mrs. John F. Dow, Mrs. L. M. Marks and Mrs. Earl Snider.

There were charming decorations everywhere in spring flowers. The east parlor was done entirely in yellow, a mass of yellow daffodils forming the centerpiece of the table from which lunch was served en buffet, while all the details were carried out in cream or yellow. The reception parlor was in pink, carried out in baskets of pink and white tulips and carnations, the handles tied with large tulle bows and ribbons. There was dancing, Pauman's orchestra giving a delightful program of music.

PRE-NUPTIAL FOR MISS WUNDER.

Supper was served by the hostesses. The centerpiece was of pink and white carnations and ferns, a large wedding bell over the table's center having streamers in the colors to the corners, while place cards and favors suggested the shades of rose with white. The evening was enjoyed with games, the honors going to Mrs. Otto Stueben, Miss Amanda Andersen and Miss Edna Stueben.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Wunder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. A. Wunder of 1132 West Fourth street, Davenport, to Robert Dearborn of this city will be quietly solemnized at the parsonage of Berea Congregational church next Wednesday morning. Rev. B. H. ## MISSION WORKER A WHITE SLAVER?

Henry M. Briggs and Miss Cora Meeks.

Cleveland, Ohio, March 23.—Henry M. Briggs of this city, a church and mission worker, former business man, and during the Baehr administration, assistant superintendent of the Warrensville farm colony, is being hunted by federal authorities as a fugitive from justice.

Failure to find him has led them to the conclusion that he has fled to escape service of the warrant sworn out by the Rev. A. Frank Houser, pastor of the Trinity Baptist church, charging him with violation of the Mann act in taking Cora Meeks of this city, 19 years old, to Detroit on a Detroit and Cleveland line boat last July.

Briggs has not been seen by his employers since March 16, when he explained to R. T. Montgomery, his superior in the carpet department of a Euclid avenue department store, that he had been summoned to court and had to leave immediately.

"If Henry is guilty, as this girl charges, he must be unbalanced," his wife said today. "Bad business, resulting in his rug store going into bankruptcy several years ago, always has preyed on his mind."

"I regarded Mr. Briggs as a single man," Miss Meeks said when seen at the home of the Rev. Mr. Houser, where she has been living during the investigation which led to the Rev. Mr. Houser swearing out the warrant for Briggs.

"He told me he was single, and even talked of our getting married. My parents also thought he was single. He came to see me several evenings a week, and I was in the habit of meeting him at the store often."

"I don't know what it was that led me to go to Detroit with him—unless my great love for him made me lose my head."

Briggs is 54 years old and was married 18 years ago.

class of boys taught by Mrs. George Boomer at the church Saturday evening at a St. Patrick's day soiree. The rooms were decorated in crepe paper and flowers to carry out the St. Patrick's day idea. Games were played and in a contest the prizes were won by Victor Tomlinson and Orville Gregg. Refreshments were served before the close of the evening.

JANSEN-HUETTMANN.

Miss Emma Huettmann of Davenport and Thomas F. Jansen of 803 Ninth street, this city, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pahl, 2920 Dubuque street, Davenport. Rev. Oscar Horn, pastor of the Trinity German Lutheran church officiated and a company of 20 friends witnessed the ceremony. A pretty courtesy was extended the bride who came to this country five months ago from Germany, when she entered the parlor where a floral arch was erected. As she and the groom entered, little Mamie Dickman presented the bride with a lovely bouquet and Ella Schellhorn draped over her head a beautiful veil and Agnes Schellhorn gave to the groom a boutonniere. Little Dorothy Pahl acted as the ring bearer. The bride was dressed in white embroidered voile and lace. A wedding dinner followed the ceremony. The new home will be in this city, where the groom is engaged in the butcher business.

COFFMAN-LINDBURG.

Miss Mildred Lindburg and Leonard Coffman, both of this city, today announced the fact that they were united in marriage March 5, the ceremony taking place at Cambridge at the parsonage of the Swedish Lutheran church, the pastor Rev. R. S. Miller, officiating. The young people were accompanied by the uncle of the bride, F. J. Barnett and upon their return kept the news of their marriage a secret from all but their near relatives, the announcement to day being the first intimation that their friends have had of their marriage. The bride lives with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Barnett, at 715½ Fourth avenue, and the groom resides at 536 Twenty-sixth street. Mr. Coffman is employed at the Rock Island Sash & Door Works and his bride has been employed in the office of L. S. McCabe & Co. The new home will be in Rock Island.

One table of whist was played by guests and the prizes here went to Miss Sarah Rueben and Sam Trilling of Boston. Three tables were surrounded by regular club members and prizes were awarded to Miss Hattie Sosna and Sam Gellerman and William H. Morris, and the consolation to Miss Tillie Silverman. A lunch was served at the small tables after the games. The club will meet next Thursday evening with Miss Silverman at the Y. M. H. club rooms. Miss Lily Levinson of Chicago was an out of town guest.

EBERHART-SEGAR.

Elmer Clyde Eberhart, 2224 Fourth avenue and Miss Daisy C. Segar also of this city were united in marriage Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the parsonage of the Unitarian church, Davenport, the pastor, Rev. J. W. Cooper performing the ceremony. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Williams, uncle and aunt of the bride. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the New Kimball. Mr. Mr. Eberhart is engaged in the piano selling and tuning business and is well known in local business circles. They will reside at 2225 Fourth avenue.

Music and games helped pass a very pleasant afternoon and in the contest the prize was won by Miss Hazel Eckhart. At 6 o'clock a delicious five course dinner was served, the table being very prettily decorated.

BLUE BIRD CLUB MEETS.

The Blue Bird club was entertained Saturday evening at the home of Miss Irene Sundell, 738 Twenty-fourth street. There were games and in a geographical contest the prize was won by Miss Helen Dodson. SOCIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Owing to the death of F. R. Harrington, the dancing party which was to have been given by the ladies of the Knights Templar next Thursday evening has been postponed till Thursday, April 23, at Masonic temple.

The Young People's society of Broadway Presbyterian church is putting on a penny social Tuesday evening, March 24. The stunts planned are as original as this society usually gets up in its entertainments. Music, games, shows and eats will make up the program, not to mention a balloon ascension. At considerable trouble Madame Shredded Whiskers, the Wenie Wurst Brothers, Monsieur Once Was, Venus, the $10.00 beauty, and many other world famous personalities will be on hand. An elaborate menu has been prepared which will be served throughout the evening for the small sum of a tenth part of a dime, or one cent an article. Unless all signs fail, it will be a jolly crowd in the Sunday school rooms.

DRYS PLAN MEETING

THURSDAY AT RINK

The drys are planning to hold their next mass meeting Thursday night at the Rock Island rink when Mrs. Mary Harris Armor, of Americus, Ga., termed the "Joan of Arc" of anti-saloon forces, will be the probable speaker.

Recently Mrs. Armor notified the speakers' committee of the Local Option league that she would be unable because of illness to fill her Rock Island engagement. At the same time she likewise cancelled all of her Illinois dates. Since then, however, she has improved and the local committee is now awaiting word from her. In case she does not appear, able substitutes are available.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Things Worth Knowing.

Lemons will keep for weeks if covered with cold water.

Soap and chalk mixed and rubbed on mildewed spot will remove them.

A towel wrung out of very hot water and applied to the back of the neck will often relieve severe headache.

After madras curtains have been washed and rinsed dip them in a very thin starch and wring out quite dry. Then put them up on the rods and pull even. They dry in a very short time and look better than if they are ironed or stretched.

Before frying bacon, if you soak it in cold water for three or four minutes you will find that it prevents the grease from running, and the bacon will have a much finer flavor.

When cutting newly baked bread always dip the knife in boiling water. After fowl of any kind is cleaned, the inside should be well rubbed with a piece of lemon before the dressing is put in.

Before using milk for custards, scald it and let it cool, then use and your custard will not become watery.

The Table.

Lima Bean Patties—Soak a pint of lima beans (dried) over night. Drain and cook until soft in boiling salted water. Press through a fine sieve, measure the pulp and allow to each cup of beans the yolk of an egg, a tablespoonful of minced parsley and half a teaspoonful of grated onion. Shape into small flat cakes, dip into for the home treatment of disease were wonderfully dependable. True, they knew nothing of drugs, but owed their success to the roots, herbs and barks of the field. It is interesting to note that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful remedy for female ills we have, was originally prepared for home use from these recipes. Its fame has now spread from shore to shore, and thousands of American women now find and strong claim they owe their health and happiness to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.—(Adv.)

Woman's Club Hears a Recital By C. E. Clarke.

At the March meeting of the Woman's club of Rock Island held Saturday afternoon at Masonic temple the name of Mrs. T. B. Reimers is chairman, for consideration at the annual meeting in April. Mrs. Davis has made a very efficient president at the critical period of the club's life and her help has been of such great benefit and her advice so sound and fair that the membership feels she should again lead the society.

Other officers suggested by the nominating committee are:

First Vice President—Mrs. A. E. Williams.

Second Vice President—Mrs. Gustav Andreen.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. C. L. Silvis.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. E. R. Maloney.

Treasurer—Mrs. W. J. Sweeney.

Directors to serve two years—Messdames T. E. Newland, George Roth, Ralph Dart and Miss Clara B. Hampton.

WANTED TO KNOW

The Truth About Grape-Nuts Food.

It doesn't matter so much what you hear about a thing, it's what you know that counts. And correct knowledge is most likely to come from personal experience.

"About a year ago," writes a N. Y. man, "I was bothered by indigestion, especially during the forenoon. I tried several remedies without any permanent improvement."

"My breakfast usually consisted of oatmeal, steak or chops, bread, coffee and some fruit."

"Hearing so much about Grape-Nuts, I concluded to give it a trial and find out if all I had heard of it was true."

"So I began with Grape-Nuts and cream, soft boiled eggs, toast, a cup of Postum and some fruit. Before the end of the first week I was rid of the acidity of the stomach and felt much relieved."

"By the end of the second week all traces of indigestion had disappeared and I was in first rate health once more. Before beginning this course of diet, I never had any appetite for lunch, but now I can enjoy the meal at noon time."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."
